Haunted Mansion-Themed Fall Festival Brings Free Family Fun to the Stevens Point Area YMCA

A Spooktacular, Family-Friendly Tradition for All Ages

STEVENS POINT, WI — Mark your calendars for Saturday, October 25, from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.—the Stevens Point Area YMCA, located at 1000 Division Street in Stevens Point, is transforming into a family-friendly Haunted Mansion for one of the community's most beloved traditions: the Annual Fall Festival! Admission is completely free and open to the public—no membership or registration required. Families from Stevens Point, Plover, and surrounding areas are invited to enjoy a day packed with spooky fun, sweet treats, and activities for all ages.

The Fall Festival is the Y's largest community event of the year, drawing hundreds of children, parents, grandparents, relatives, and friends. Guests can enjoy the ever-popular Pumpkin Pool Splash, bounce through lively inflatables, step into a glow-in-the-dark adventure room, decorate pumpkins and cookies, get festive face paint, play a wide variety of carnival-style games with prizes, and more. From toddlers bouncing through the inflatables to teens showing off their creativity with pumpkin and cookie decorating—and parents and grandparents joining in on the games—there's truly something for everyone to enjoy.

"The Y recognizes the importance of a strong community and takes every opportunity to provide children and families with fun, affordable events that bring people together,” said McKenzie Klasinski, Aquatics and Sports Director at the Stevens Point Area YMCA. “The Fall Festival is one of our favorite ways to connect with the community, welcome new faces, and create lasting memories for all who attend.”

The festival is made possible in part by Community First Bank, which is sponsoring regional radio promotions to help spread the word.
